

Who is AVANCE?

AVANCE is a national nonprofit organization and a leader in providing responsive, two-generation programming and support to families on their journeys to academic success, economic mobility, and beyond.

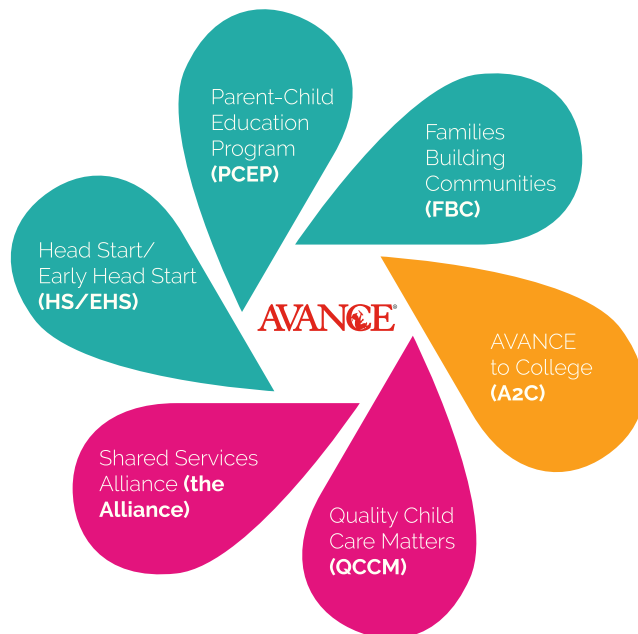

Our Mission

AVANCE walks alongside children and families to achieve social and economic justice.

Our programs

AVANCE's core programs are organized into three focus areas: Two-Generation Approach, Postsecondary Education & Workforce Development, and Quality Family Child Care Support. These core programs work independently and as a self-directed continuum of support where caregivers can pursue the supports and services that best meet their specific needs.

Our Impact

Children who participate in PCEP with their caregivers are 12 times more likely to pass their kindergarten readiness assessments.

10 years after participating in PCEP, parents report:

216% ↑

increase in postsecondary degree attainment

183% ↑

increase in full-time employment

142% ↑

increase in homeownership
